Open Access (OA) Publishing Subsidy Program by the Ecological Society of Japan

(updated on May 1st, 2024)

Purpose:

Promote Open Science by subsidizing OA expenses for member articles' publication.

Eligibility:

The first or corresponding author must be a member of either:

- The Ecological Society of Japan
- The Society of Population Ecology
- The Society for the Study of Species Biology

✨ New members are also eligible.

If interested, we recommend contacting the Ecological Society of Japan \(ESJ\).

Charges:

Authors pay 180,000 yen + transfer fee.

The Ecological Society of Japan covers the remainder of the Article Processing Charge (APC)* paid to the publisher.

*$3,000 for Ecological Research (ER) and Population Ecology (PE).

Restrictions:

This OA subsidy CANNOT be used with a publication expenses subsidy through a transformative agreement with Wiley provided by an affiliated institution.

Prior to application, click institutions here:

<https://authorservices.wiley.com/author-resources/Journal-Authors/open-access/affiliation-policies-payments/institutional-funder-payments.html>

Even if the above applies, you can still choose to use the OA Publishing Subsidy Program by the ESJ upon request (arrangements with your institution will be necessary).

Procedures for Authors (also see the next page)

1. APPLY: Submit the "OA Subsidy Questionnaire" sent to you upon acceptance.
2. SUBMISSION: Fill, sign, and send the payment pledge PDF to the secretariat.
3. LICENSING: Apply for Open Access through the Wiley Author Service Center.
4. PAYMENT: Fulfill payment according to the invoice received from the secretariat by the specified date in the pledge. (Payment Method: Bank transfer only; credit card payments not accepted.)
